To whom it may concern,

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that for technical reasons, we have discontinued the Thinking Kit subscription model.

If you are subscribed, all features of the Thinking Kit Creator tool will be available for you to use until the end of your subscription but you will be unable to subscribe to the tool after this.

The Thinking Kit App will continue to be available on the App Store, which means any activities you have already made in the Thinking Kit Creator can still be used in the app.

If you have any questions about this letter, please email us at info@reflectivethinking.com.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several overlapping, fluid strokes.
